

Anne Frank Answers Page 170-211

1. Anne's mother received a real mocha cake, pre-war quality, for her birthday.
2. Anne spends many of her Sundays sorting out and looking over her film star collection.
- 3 Anne's fear vanish as she stood at the top of the stairs because she trusted in God.
4. Anne's father tell his wife everything because he believes she's far too emotional, far too critical and often far too biased.
5. They get breakfast at eleven-thirty.
6. Anne believes her mother is jealous of Mrs van Daan because Anne speaks to her more than her mother.
7. Anne practiced her French and English on Saturday morning.
8. When Anne thinks back to 1942 she believes she led a 'heavenly existence' because she had many admirers, lots of friends, she was the favourite of many teachers, spoiled rotten by her parents, had bags full of sweets and loads of pocket money.
9. Anne says that she 'wasn't altogether happy in 1942' because she often felt that she had been deserted.
10. Anne believe her mother's advice is not right because she believes that if you become part of the suffering you would become 'completely lost'.